Direktion in B

The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The music begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The upper staff features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the lower staff provides a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

The second system continues the piece with two staves. The melodic line in the upper staff shows some chromatic movement. The bass line continues with a steady accompaniment. The dynamics remain consistent with the first system.

The third system of music shows further development of the melodic and harmonic material. The upper staff has more complex rhythmic patterns, including some beamed notes. The bass line remains supportive with chords and moving lines.

The fourth system begins with a tempo change to Presto. The upper staff has a more active melodic line. The lower staff features a ff (fortissimo) dynamic section with a prominent bass note. The tempo change is indicated by a double bar line and the word Presto above the staff.

The fifth system continues the Presto section. The upper staff has a melodic line with some grace notes. The bass line continues with a rhythmic accompaniment. The dynamics are maintained at a high level.

The sixth and final system of music on this page. The upper staff concludes with a melodic phrase. The bass line provides a final accompaniment. The piece ends with a double bar line and a final chord in the bass.
